1. Due to the continuation of research work as part of the said project, its specificity and unique nature, and the fact that reagents/materials used in the research process will have a significant impact on the shape of the conducted R&D work, for technical reasons of an objective nature, the description of the object of a contract indicates the reference number of the product(s).
2. Due to the uniqueness, unprecedented nature and precisely defined methodology of the conducted projects, research and experiments, as well as the necessity to maintain the continuity and repeatability of studies conducted by the Ordering Party, each Supplier offering products equivalent to the products described in the request for quotation shall be obliged:
 - to prove, on the basis of technical documentation/safety data sheets for reagents etc., and a written declaration, that the offered equivalent products (each of such products separately) meet the requirements allowing the continuation of research by the Purchaser with no need to perform additional activities (procedures), including, for example, calibration of devices or validation of the developed laboratory methods,
 - to prove (by way of a written declaration included in the submitted tender) that the offered equivalent products will not cause any increase in costs due to the need to purchase additional products and other consumables,
 - to assume liability – in the form of a written declaration – for any damage to equipment caused due to the use of the equivalent products offered and delivered, according to the opinion issued by an authorised repairer of the equipment manufacturer.
